Wed 23 Jun 2010 - 16:00 - 17:30

[2010-06-23 16::17:15] Robert_Hoggarth: Welcome to the session everyone!As the in-room advocate for remote participation for this session I will be happy to read your questions or statements live later in this session.

[2010-06-23 16::55:13] Robert_Hoggarth: audiocast information for this session (in English, French and Spanish) available at this link ... http://brussels38.icann.org/node/12500

[2010-06-23 17::22:11] Bill_Drake: In other contexts, the notion of Agenda means mainstreaming something across policy discussions, in the first instance as a criteria of evaluation

[2010-06-23 17::23:45] Robert_Hoggarth: bill ... do you want me to read that comment?

[2010-06-23 17::25:37] Bill_Drake: Sure. Let me draw a parallel. In the IGF I have been pushing the notion of a Development Agenda for Internet Governance, meaning that in looking at any given issue or institution, cross-cutting, one at leasts asks, are there distinctive development considerations associated with this, impacts positive or negative to consider, etc---in a holistic manner.

[2010-06-23 17::27:07] CLO: Thank YOU Bill

[2010-06-23 17::27:11] Robert_Hoggarth: bill ... sure. interested looks and affirmative nods from Chair and others
