RICHARD COX

Richard Cox originally came from the world of broadcast television and then worked for a number of ISPs in the UK on licensing and compliance issues, and also worked for the ITU-D as a senior Technical Expert.

He joined the Spamhaus Project in 2003 and became their CIO in 2004. Currently he is CoChair of the RIPE Anti-Abuse Working Group and a member of the RIPE CyberCrime Working party.